The abstracts cited on the IDS filed 11/12/09 have been stricken from the IDS, but not because the examiner is unwilling to consider them. The reason is that the abstracts have been listed in the “foreign patents” section, but the documents in question are not actually patents; they are merely “bare bones” summaries of patents. As such, these should be placed in the “other documents” section; as indicated previously, the following format can be used:

Abstract of Yoshikawa (WO 00/29425; issued May, 2000).
